

PTA – Weekend Outing

Saturday January 17, 2009 (8:45am to 1pm)

Tai Tam Reservoir

When was the last time you and other HKUGAC parents spent time to get to know each other during an outdoor activity? How about you've been planning to go for a hike with family but never get around of doing it, would you like to do it now if there is an opportunity?

PTA is pleased to announce an outing on Saturday morning January 17, 2009 in one of the most beautiful places in Hong Kong - Tai Tam Reservoir. Tai Tam in Chinese literary means "Big Pond" which is nestled in the north-eastern corner of Hong Kong Island, just steps away from the bustling districts of Causeway Bay and Wanchai. We welcome parents, teachers and students to join us for several hours of fun and play.

PTA will take care of the logistics, which include transportation, food and games. All we ask you to bring along is your own supply of water and put on proper outdoor gears such as hat, sunglasses, towel, and suntan lotion. The outing will last about three and half hours in total. Details of the rundown are as follows:
