

5th March, 2009

No. 031/08-09

Dear Parents,

Next week HKUGA College will celebrate Book Week and the Library has a number of events planned for the students. Our aim is to promote a love of books and reading for all ages. We have chosen that week to coincide with the Man Hong Kong International Literary Festival and, therefore, have been able to organize trips to attend readings and presentations by two well-known international authors who are here for the festival. The visits will take place on Friday, 13th March. S2 students will attend a presentation by Elizabeth Laird and S3 students will attend a talk by both Elizabeth Laird and Marcus Zusac.

In addition, we have organized two competitions for students – “Guess the Book” and a competition for S1 students to design a bookmark for whichever book they will be studying as their class reader. There will also be some fun quizzes for students during their library lessons.

On Thursday, 12th March, all staff and students are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite literary character, which should result in a colourful spectacle.

On Tuesday 10th and Wednesday, 11th March, Fields and Associates, one of our book suppliers, will set up a Book Fair in the Library. Students are invited to purchase books of their choice and parents are most welcome to come in during the day and browse for themselves. It will be open from 10.00 a.m. – 4.00 p.m.

Yours sincerely,

Eva Bannon
Librarian