No. 046-09/10

Dear Parents of S3 & S4 Students,

“Famine 12” – Joint School Fund-Raising Programme

Children in Hong Kong do not have to worry about getting enough food, as most of them have more than they need. However, do they really understand how well-provided they are?

To give students a chance to learn to treasure what they have, Youth Education Service (YES) and World Vision Hong Kong will be organizing a “Famine 12” Campaign jointly with HKUGA College and three international schools, Shatin College, Li Po Chun United World College and Renaissance College. We believe this activity can give students a better understanding of the plight of children suffering from hunger, thereby inspiring them to reflect on their values and habits whilst counting their own blessing. Details of this programme are:
